Culture to the people

I wish I had that book but it's very expensive to buy it from the book store...

mmm... I don't need this book any more, what should I do with it?

Book4All

Every year millions of books are printed worldwide.

What happens when all those books are not needed anymore?

At the same time, millions of people are in great need of books.

Why not link the people who don't need a book any more with those who need it?
